IN RE:

GUANTANAMO BAY
DETAINEE LITIGATION

Misc. No. 08-442 (TFH)

Civil Action No. 04-CV-1254 (HHK)

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Mohamed Mohamed Hassan Odaini, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 681.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 7/27/2004. The respondent has filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

Dated: July 18, 2008

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Ibrahim Ahmed Mahmoud Al Qosi, a national of Sudan, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 54.

2) The Protective Order has not been entered in this case.

3) Although styled as a petition directly authorized by the petitioner, no such direct authorization has been filed with the Court. Because such authorization has not been filed, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 11/08/2004. The respondent has not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Muhammad Al-Adahi, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 33.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee was originally represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. The government has in its possession a document signed by the petitioner in which he agrees to be represented in his habeas corpus petition before the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia by a lawyer in the employ of Sutherland Asbill & Brennan LLP. It is unclear, however, whether this authorization was ever filed with this Court. Because such authorization may not have been filed, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner on the record before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Suleiman Awadh bin Aqil Al-Nahdi, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 511.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee has directly authorized this petition.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 2/7/2005. The respondent has filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

- 1) Omer Saeed Salem Al Daini, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 549.
- 2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.
- 3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.
- 4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.
- 5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 3/28/2005. The respondent has filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.
